Overview

Grace Benitone Burnett represents businesses and individuals in a wide variety of litigation matters with a focus on insurance defense and torts. Well versed in high-exposure and complex casework, she helps develop comprehensive strategies that preserve clients' core financial and operational objectives and public images.

While coordinating all aspects of pretrial and trial preparation, Grace draws on robust experience navigating diverse premises and contract cases. She is client service-oriented and has worked across multiple jurisdictions and legal venues to protect individuals, processes, and services amid highly sensitive and litigious disputes.
