Overview

Grant Boyden focuses on civil and business litigation, helping clients navigate a variety of commercial disputes through thoughtful counsel and proactive risk management as he pursues favorable outcomes that align with clients' objectives.

Prior to joining Spencer Fane as an associate, Grant completed two legal internships: first, as a legal intern at the Federal Public Defender Office for the District of Utah, where he assisted in legal research and writing in the Office's appellate unit; later, as a legal extern for the Honorable Carolyn B. McHugh of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit.

Grant completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Utah and later earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Utah's S.J. Quinney College of Law. During law school, he served as the editor-in-chief of the Utah Law Review, and as a research assistant.
