Overview

Greg Walch advises on environmental, water, land use, mining, eminent domain, and administrative law matters throughout Southern Nevada. With more than 30 years of experience navigating all phases of natural resource and environmental issues – from sales transactions to permitting to compliance to litigation – he has established himself as an industry leader and boasts a track record of successful outcomes.

Greg currently serves as general counsel for the Southern Nevada Water Authority and the Las Vegas Valley Water District. Prior to entering the practice of law, he engineered water supply and groundwater systems for industrial and municipal clients, gaining pivotal industry experience and knowledge.
