Overview

Henry Hong helps clients navigate complex litigation matters by developing strategic solutions that advance their business interests and achieve favorable outcomes. His approach focuses on understanding each client's unique objectives and delivering practical, results-based counsel through clear communication and disciplined advocacy.

Prior to joining Spencer Fane, Henry represented clients in disputes before Washington, D.C., courts and agencies as a student attorney with the Georgetown Law Civil Justice Clinic. He also served as an executive editor of the Georgetown Journal of Law & Public Policy, completed two summers as a Spencer Fane summer associate, and interned with both the U.S. Attorney's Office and the U.S. District Court for the District of D.C. Before attending law school, Henry served in the U.S. Navy for five years as a Hospital Corpsman.

Henry brings a mission-focused mindset shaped by his military and public service background. He is committed to providing responsive, detail-oriented representation that helps clients resolve disputes efficiently and achieve their long-term business goals with confidence. Henry also speaks Mandarin Chinese.
