

Jack F. King III

Associate

Contact

Nashville

P 615.238.6308 | F 615.238.6301

jking@spencerfane.com

Overview

Jack King helps businesses ranging from small startup entities to large public companies with responsive and collaborative client service on all corporate and business transactional matters, allowing them to establish and maintain successful operations. He concentrates his practice on business and corporate law, health care law, real estate law, and entrepreneurial and emerging business law.

Prior to graduating from law school, Jack served as a legal intern with Asurion and the Nashville Predators. He also spent time clerking in the Nashville law offices of Butler Snow and Robinson, Reagan and Young.

Education

- University of Tennessee College of Law, 2019 (J.D.)
- Auburn University, 2016 (B.B.A.)

Bar Admissions

- Tennessee

Community Involvement

- Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville

Distinctions

- Best Lawyers in America, Ones to Watch, 2025
- Mid-South Super Lawyers, Rising Star, 2024

Memberships

- Tennessee Bar Association
- Nashville Bar Association

Related Experience

- Drafted all manner of contracts necessary to operate a successful business, such as operation agreements, service agreements, license agreements, terms and conditions, and employment agreements.
- Assisted medical professionals and their practices in forming professional business entities, reviewing and negotiating contracts, and regulatory compliance.
- Drafted employment agreements for health care providers, including practice groups.
- Drafted purchase agreements for commercial real estate.