Overview

Jacob Sappington represents a diverse assortment of clients in complex and high-stakes litigation, focusing on tort, business, and insurance matters as he employs more than two decades of legal experience and savvy trial acumen. Working across industries, he identifies clients' objectives early on and forms sound legal strategies to limit financial and operational exposure, advance their interests, and protect their reputations.

A prolific trial attorney, Jacob has achieved favorable outcomes in dozens of trials for both plaintiffs and defendants, as well as arbitrations and administrative hearings, with his total portfolio of work spanning hundreds of cases. He also boasts an extensive appellate practice in which he has prosecuted and defended a wide variety of appeals, including future damages under Missouri law.
