Overview

Jon Wilbourn is a consumer financial services and commercial litigator with more than 20 years of experience defending financial institutions in complex, high-exposure consumer financial services litigation nationwide. Jon represents large national banks, mortgage lenders and servicers, credit card issuers, auto finance companies, and debt collectors in matters arising under the full spectrum of federal “alphabet soup” and consumer protection statutes, including the FCRA, FDCPA, TILA, RESPA, TCPA, ECOA, FCBA, and state UDAP laws.

Clients rely on Jon not only to defend claims, but to identify the root causes of litigation, assess whether systemic issues require attention, and to anticipate emerging risks driven by changes in the law.

Clients value Jon’s practical advocacy, deep command of consumer financial services laws, and his ability to efficiently manage risk, control costs, and drive favorable outcomes that best suit his clients’ needs and business goals.
