Overview

Jordan Berkhouse helps businesses, insurers, and professionals navigate litigation and liability disputes so they can protect their interests and effectively manage risk. His practice focuses primarily on insurance and liability defense matters, including professional liability, personal injury, and tort litigation.

Jordan represents clients throughout the litigation process, handling matters from initial pleadings and motion practice through discovery, depositions, and dispute resolution. Clients rely on his strategic and detail-oriented approach to addressing complex legal challenges.

Jordan also has experience defending claims involving medical malpractice, civil rights, municipal liability, and government liability. His background includes matters arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the Oklahoma Governmental Tort Claims Act, providing him with valuable insight into the unique legal and procedural issues involved in these disputes.
