Overview

Julia Vander Weele is an employee benefits attorney who also serves as Office Managing Partner of the Spencer Fane Kansas City office.

In addition to her leadership at the firm, Julia maintains a full-time legal practice that helps employers and other benefit plan sponsors create and maintain competitive benefits packages that attract and retain talent to help their businesses thrive. Her specific experience in the Employee Benefits Practice group includes managing issues related to the tax code and labor laws related to competitive tax-favored benefit packages that shield leadership from personal liability.

She also advises clients on laws applicable to employee benefit plans and programs, including health care reform and ERISA. Her collaborative approach to client service includes an intentional ability to understand a client's business and unique goals and objectives. She works directly with HR professionals, C-level executives, and business owners to assist them in making informed decisions on their retirement, health, executive compensation, and other benefit plans.

In recognition of her leadership, Julia was named by Missouri Lawyers Media as a 2022 Law Firm Leaders honoree and included in Ingram's magazine's 2022 Ingram's 250 class and 2021 class of Women Executives Kansas City (WeKC).

Julia also remains actively involved in numerous professional and civic organizations. She previously chaired and remains highly involved in the Spencer Fane Women ADVOCATE group.

Outside the firm, Julia also serves as a member of the Civic Council of Greater Kansas City, which is a 501(c)(4) nonprofit organization composed of the leadership of the largest private employers in the Kansas City region. In her role, she is a member of the Civic Council's Kansas City Tomorrow leadership program (KCT), a selective, year-long experience that prepares senior-level business and community leaders for civic engagement in the Kansas City region.
