Overview

LeeAnn Littlejohn collaborates with clients to deliver tailored legal solutions across estate planning, probate, labor and employment, and complex litigation. Her ability to navigate intricate legal issues with precision stems from her comprehensive academic background and diverse professional experiences.

LeeAnn completed the Spencer Fane summer associate program in 2023, where she gained valuable experience in legal research, drafting, and understanding the firm's client-centered approach.

While earning her Juris Doctor from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, she held officer roles in the Black Law Students Association and the American Constitution Society. She also served as 3L Secretary for the Student Bar Association and competed nationally as a member of the Black Law Students Association Negotiations Team. Additionally, she was a member of the American Indian Law Review, serving as Research Editor and Assistant Managing Editor, and was honored as a Dean's Leadership Fellow and an Ada Lois Sipuel Fisher Scholar.

Before attending law school, LeeAnn graduated summa cum laude from the University of Central Oklahoma with dual degrees in Finance and Legal Studies. Her strong academic foundation and leadership experience prepared her to handle the complexities of her current legal practice with dedication and skill.
