Overview

Michael Sichter represents individuals and businesses in class actions, tort claims, personal injury claims, insurance disputes, and business litigation, using comprehensive strategies to advocate for his clients in markedly complex and contentious disputes in state and federal courts.

A trusted problem-solver, Michael guides clients through what can be overwhelming, multi-step legal processes with confidence, working diligently from case inception through resolution. In addition to his diverse trial experience, he drafts and reviews motions and pleadings, manages discovery strategy and execution, coordinates expert support, and, when favorable, initiates and conducts alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

Michael is highly regarded for his attention to detail in fact-intensive matters and his tireless pursuit of justice for all clients.
