Overview

Misty Segura assists clients in a variety of industries with all aspects of bankruptcy matters and enforcement of creditors' rights. Her work in Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 cases has involved representing secured creditors (including lenders as well as mechanic and materialmen lienholders), trustees, landlords, and general unsecured creditors.

Misty has also defended clients against bankruptcy preference and fraudulent transfer claims. Her background in commercial and bankruptcy litigation enables her to protect her clients' interests when a consensual resolution to a dispute is not possible.
