Overview

Nicholas Ocampo represents businesses in litigation spanning real estate, construction, financial, insurance, and complex commercial matters. He tailors each strategy to his clients' goals, always safeguarding their legal interests while advancing specific financial, operational, and business objectives. Known for his versatility, Nick moves easily between industries and cases, blending thoughtful advocacy with broad experience to achieve positive results inside and outside the courtroom.

Prior to earning his Juris Doctor, Nick spent five years in South Texas as an account manager for a natural gas compression and production equipment provider. There, he gained valuable skills managing relationships with industry leaders and key stakeholders, identifying strategic solutions, and negotiating and maintaining contracts. He uses this experience from early in his career to forge strong, long-term client relationships rooted in full-service support at all stages of the litigation cycle.
