Overview

Rebecca Gibson addresses the full range of risks clients might encounter with proactive legal strategies, allowing clients to reduce the potential for litigation but beneficially resolving matters utilizing a full range of dispute-resolution methods when necessary.

With a broad-ranging private practice, Rebecca prioritizes understanding the unique business goals and objectives of clients, allowing her to provide agile, informed, and cost-effective representation. She frequently collaborates with attorneys across practice groups to ensure comprehensive counsel.

Rebecca brings experience in civil litigation, defamation, governmental immunity, and False Claims Act matters. She is also expanding her work in niche sectors, including business divorce law, and recently joined the firm's respective market team. In addition, she is proficient in Japanese and spent an undergraduate semester studying abroad at Doshisha University in Kyoto.
