Overview

Spencer Topham is a strategic M&A and corporate attorney who serves as a key advisor to private equity sponsors, businesses, and individuals on their most significant transactions. His practice is built on experience gained at local and regional firms and a premier global law firm, where he managed a broad spectrum of deals ranging from $1 million to multi-billion-dollar landmark transactions.

As lead deal counsel, Spencer quarterbacks sophisticated domestic and cross-border transactions designed to drive client growth, including strategic mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, joint ventures, and complex restructurings. He is valued by clients for his pragmatic, business-first approach to mitigating risk while relentlessly advancing their commercial goals.

Beyond his core M&A practice, clients rely on Spencer as their outside general counsel for a wide range of corporate matters, from critical commercial agreements to day-to-day operational guidance. His comprehensive industry experience spans private equity, consumer products, banking, technology, health care, and media. This includes a distinctive focus on the creator economy, where he negotiates high-value marketing and management agreements for leading brands and influencers.
