Overview

Ursula Davy assists clients on a wide range of employment law-related matters with a focus on providing full-service coverage through diligent day-to-day counsel, long-term compliance strategies, and, when necessary, litigation.

While earning her Juris Doctor at the University of Colorado (CU) Law School, Ursula was an active member of the Barristers' Council National Mock Trial Team, competing in several mock trial competitions and serving as the external competition chair. She was also a student-attorney in the Civil Practice Clinic where she represented low-income clients in landlord-tenant disputes and wage and hour claims.
