

SpencerFane®

ERISA/Employee Benefits

OVERVIEW

Spencer Fane lawyers have represented employers, trustees, and other benefits providers since before the enactment of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. From routine disputes involving claims for benefits to complex, class action employer stock cases, we provide clients sophisticated representation in a cost-effective manner. Our experienced ERISA litigation attorneys successfully fashion innovative and practical settlements that yield significant cost savings and recoveries for our financial institution clients.
