

SpencerFane®

Services

Spencer Fane attorneys serve clients across the United States in a variety of practice areas. In each of the practice areas listed below, our attorneys are sought out for their business knowledge, practical experience and ability to develop creative solutions to complicated legal problems. Using an interdisciplinary approach, we develop teams of attorneys to serve our clients for the life of their business. We look forward to serving you, both in matters relating to your business, and trial and appellate work in state, federal, and bankruptcy courts throughout the country.
