Spencer Fane Adds to Litigation, Trust and Estate Planning Practices

MARCH 10, 2015 | NEWS

Kansas City, Missouri – Spencer Fane Britt & Browne LLP is pleased to announce the addition of two attorneys to its Litigation and Trust and Estate Planning groups within its Kansas City office. Andrea Anderson and Erik Rome have joined the firm as associates in the Litigation Practice Group and the Trust and Estate Planning Practice Group, respectively.

Andrea Anderson – Litigation Practice Group

Bringing to the firm nearly five years of experience representing clients in business litigation matters, Andrea Anderson will try cases on a variety of complex matters. She has significant experience representing businesses in corporate, real estate, and construction-related disputes involving breaches of contract, commercial leases, mechanics' liens, and business-related torts. She also has extensive experience representing insurance carriers and insureds in coverage disputes involving breach of contract, bad faith, and vexatious refusal claims. Anderson earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Kansas School of Law and a Bachelor of Journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Erik Rome – Trust and Estate Planning Group

Rome joins Spencer Fane's Trust and Estate Planning Group with almost three years' experience in the legal industry. His practice focuses on estate planning, tax planning, probate, estate and trust administration, and business law. Rome earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Kansas School of Law and a Bachelor of Business Administration from Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kan.
