Spencer Fane Expands its Corporate Practice Group

NOVEMBER 16, 2015 | NEWS

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to welcome Associate Justin Leck to its Kansas City office. Leck will rejoin the firm's Corporate Practice Group where he will focus on corporate law and real estate, including transfers and leases of real property, mergers and acquisitions, securities, corporate finance and providing general advice and services for privately held companies.

In addition, Leck has a strong background in environmental law and related real estate matters. He previously served as a contract negotiator at Sprint's corporate headquarters where he acted as the Commercial Transactions team lead for sustainability initiatives, including "green lease" terms. Leck also has extensive experience negotiating terms for commercial office leases as well as drafting leases, amendments and other agreements. He has provided consulting and contract work for various businesses, law firms and entrepreneurs, including an international law firm where he had previously worked as an associate. His prior experience also includes serving as an associate at a boutique bankruptcy law firm in Wichita, Kan., where he focused primarily on corporate and real estate law including complex commercial real estate matters.

Leck earned his law degree from Vanderbilt University Law School, where he was the founding member and articles editor of the Environmental Law and Policy Annual Review. Additionally, he was the winner of the 2008 Jon E. Hastings Memorial Writing Competition sponsored by the Environmental Law Section of the Tennessee Bar Association, a Chancellor's Law Scholar, a Vanderbilt Ambassador, a member of the Environmental Law Society and made the Dean's List. Leck earned his bachelor's degree in psychology and international studies from The Johns Hopkins University, where he graduated cum laude and served as the co-editor of the Academic Course Evaluation Guide. He also participated in Varsity Track and Field and served as an inner-city youth basketball coach and student adviser.

Leck is admitted to practice law in Connecticut, New York, Kansas and Missouri. Spencer Fane is excited to welcome him back to the Corporate Practice Group where his experience and knowledge will once again be a great complement to the firm's business model and commitment to client service.
